INSTRUCTOR BIO

Kelley Morrissey founded Reading Rockstars in 2016 as an afterschool enrichment class to strengthen the foundational language skills of students prior to entering kindergarten.

Kelley has a Masters in Teaching and Special Education. She also has experience in teaching multiple levels and courses in English (from PK-12), instructing students with disabilities in inclusive and special education classrooms, works as a private tutor and has been involved with multiple literacy organizations that work with students from preschool to adult. In addition to her experience as a classroom teacher, tutor and co-teacher, she is trained in the Orton Gillingham approach to teaching reading and writing.
