

Mini Motor Magic

Your highway to developing fine motor skills for your little learners!

Crafts and Games

Scissor Skills

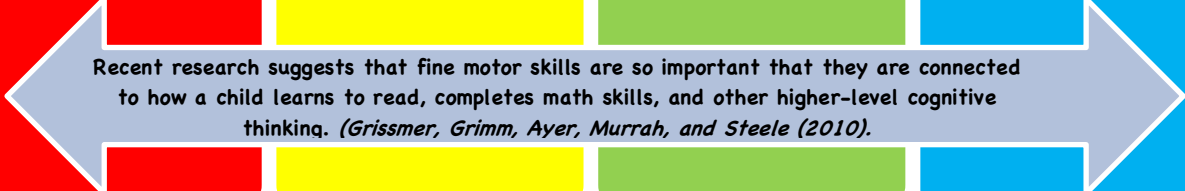

Exercises and Activities

Crossing the Midline

Letter Formations

Recent research suggests that fine motor skills are so important that they are connected to how a child learns to read, completes math skills, and other higher-level cognitive thinking. (Grissmer, Grimm, Ayer, Murrah, and Steele (2010)).

How

By engaging in fun, developmentally appropriate fine motor activities, crafts, and games.

Why

To help develop children's fine motor skills essential for learning fundamental life skills such as, writing and letter formation, pencil grip, coloring, cutting, buttoning, and zipping.

Where: Oglethorpe Presbyterian
Preschool & K

Who: 3-5-year-olds

When: Wednesdays starting
September 7th

1:30pm-2:00pm for 3 to 4 years

2:00pm - 2:30pm for PreK to Kinder

Cost: $180 per 12-week session

Contact: orlabfly@gmail.com