

“RISING READERS”

Tuesdays 1:30-2:30 at OPP

Taught by two well-trained, OPP teachers, this class is a great way for your child to increase their reading skills in a fun and interactive environment. We will use games and other multi-sensory resources to work on letter/sound recognition, as well as several other phonemic awareness and phonics activities to help improve their reading skills.

Please email eedwards1975@yahoo.com for further information and to sign up

EMILY EDWARDS previously taught Kindergarten and has been at OPP for 8 years. She has tutored children in grades PreK-5 on and off for over the last 15 years. She is trained in Orton Gillingham, which is a multi-sensory approach to reading and writing that can help readers of all levels.

ORLA MCCORMACK has taught for the last 13 years in the Butterflies PreK classroom. She has been using numerous creative resources over the years to help assist children of all different reading levels in a fun and engaging way.